KURIAN, J.

1. Leave granted.

2. The appellant was an elected member of the Gram Panchayat. She was disqualified on two grounds, namely - i) she had not constructed a toilet at her residence and ii) that her husband was a paid employee of the Panchayat.

3. The learned counsel for the appellant submits that the husband was a daily wager and in any case, he has since discontinued his service. As far as the toilet is concerned, it is submitted that the toilet with the required facilities had already been constructed by the appellant.

4. Be that as it may, the term for which the appellant had been elected has already expired. It is submitted by the learned counsel that the appellant is contesting for the fresh elections also.

5. In that view of the matter, it is for the appellant to pursue her nomination. Needless to say that at the time of scrutiny, the submissions which we have recorded above, will be gone into by the authorities concerned.

6. In view of the above, the impugned Judgment is set aside and the appeal is disposed of as above.
